About Keating Dental Arts: Irvine, CA Dental Lab

Can a laboratory add value to a dental practice . . . most definitely!

Keating Dental Arts is an award-winning, full service dental laboratory located in Irvine, California. Established in 2002, Keating Dental Arts strives to do business with this simple thought in mind: to add value to your dental practice. By receiving a high quality restoration, along with reliable, friendly service, a dental practice is bound for success. As a small, quality driven laboratory, part of our success is hearing, enjoying, and sharing in the growth of your practice.

We take pride in using only the best restorative systems, be it PFM's, All-Ceramic, Gold Work, Implants, Removables, or Temporaries. Our combination of state-of-the-art equipment and continuous education in the latest techniques plays a large role in the quality of your restoration. As a customer, you have the peace of mind of knowing that your technicians are provided with every means necessary to fabricate a superior restoration.

Keating Dental Arts understands that ultimately, we're all working for the patient. We do not cease working on a case until your patient is satisfied.
